Dear Mr Garrison

My husband has gone out in the fulfil-ment of his engagement and has commissioned me to thank you very warmly on his account as well as my own, for the very valuable and gratifying present you have so kindly sent

us. We feel extremely grateful to you for admitting us into the circle of your friends
by presenting us with such a gift. We shall always value it, not only on its own account, but also as a most pleasing memento of interesting intercourse with yourself.

Hoping that we may have the pleasure of seeing you again before you leave England and

With our united kind regards to yourself and your son

I am dear Sir

Your sincere & obliged friend

Eliza W. Crossfield
